Overview

Grenada's Citizenship by Investment (CBI) programme provides two paths to citizenship: a non-refundable contribution to the National Transformation Fund (USD 150,000 for a single applicant, USD 200,000 for a couple or a family of four) or an investment in a government-approved real estate project (USD 220,000 for projects approved under that price option, otherwise USD 350,000, plus a USD 50,000 government fee). Every applicant aged 17 and over undergoes due diligence. Grenada is the only one of the five Eastern Caribbean programme countries with a US E-2 treaty (in force 3 March 1989), it is not listed in US Presidential Proclamation 10998, and it remains visa-free to the UK with an ETA. Whether an individual qualifies for an E-2 visa is decided by US consular officers.

Key points

- Lowest single-applicant entry point of the five Eastern Caribbean programmes: USD 150,000
- Two routes: National Transformation Fund and government-approved real estate
- US E-2 treaty country (in force 3 March 1989); individual E-2 eligibility is decided by US consular officers
- Visa-free to the UK with an ETA; not listed in US Proclamation 10998

What the table shows

Grenada is the only one of the five that is simultaneously a US E-2 treaty country, free of any US entry restriction, and still visa-free to the UK. If the United States is your objective, that is the deciding factor. Whether an individual qualifies for an E-2 visa is decided by US consular officers.

Dominica and Saint Lucia have both lost UK visa-free access — Dominica in July 2023, Saint Lucia in March 2026, both expressly because of their citizenship programmes.

Antigua and Dominica are both under US Presidential Proclamation 10998 since 1 January 2026, which suspends immigrant entry and the B, F, M and J categories.

No Caribbean citizenship-by-investment passport gives visa-free entry to the United States.

Passport-power rankings

Headline counts of visa-free destinations are compiled annually and change quickly, as the UK changes above show. XIPHIAS advises on the specific destinations that matter to your family, checked at the time you apply.

What this does to an Indian passport

India does not allow dual citizenship. Section 9(1) of the Citizenship Act 1955 provides that a citizen of India who voluntarily acquires the citizenship of another country ceases to be a citizen of India. Acquiring any Caribbean citizenship is voluntary, so your Indian citizenship ends automatically on the day it is granted — no Indian decision, no discretion, no deferral. The Indian passport must be surrendered and a Surrender Certificate obtained.

You can then apply for Overseas Citizen of India status. The Ministry of External Affairs states plainly that OCI is not dual citizenship: no vote, no constitutional posts, no equality in public employment, and no acquisition of agricultural land, farmhouses or plantation property in India.

This is a replacement for your Indian citizenship, not an addition. Plan around that.

Questions clients ask

How long does it take?

Timelines vary by case. XIPHIAS confirms the current processing time with the Citizenship by Investment Committee before filing.

Can I include parents?

Grenada's Citizenship by Investment Committee states that citizenship may be extended to family members such as a spouse, dependent children and dependent parents. Age limits are confirmed with the Committee for each file.

What are the minimum investments?

A National Transformation Fund contribution from USD 150,000 (single applicant) or USD 200,000 (couple or family of four), or government-approved real estate from USD 220,000 (projects approved under that price option; otherwise USD 350,000) plus a USD 50,000 government fee.

Is residency required?

Grenada's Citizenship by Investment Committee states there is no requirement to reside in Grenada before or after citizenship is granted (as at September 2026).

Does Grenada citizenship provide U.S. E-2 visa eligibility?

Grenada is a US E-2 treaty country, in force since 3 March 1989 — the only one of the five Eastern Caribbean programme countries. Whether an individual qualifies for an E-2 visa, including on citizenship acquired by investment, is decided by US consular officers as a separate process.
